5. [] LEGISLATION Met with Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) regarding the authorization requirement in S. Res. 400. Senator Nunn said Jeff Record, his Aide, had prepared a colloquy to clarify questions regarding the authorization requirement and that I should meet with him on his return Tuesday. Senator Nunn also offered to ask any questions that we wanted if that would be helpful in establishing legislative history.

6. [] LEGISLATION During the day, I talked with Gary Sellers, Senate Appropriations Committee staff; Ed Kenney, Senator Strom Thurmond's (R., S. C.) Aide on the Senate Armed Services Committee; Fred Ruth, Legislative Assistant to Senator Dewey Bartlett (R., Okla.); Robert Hunter, Aide to Senator Robert Taft (R., Ohio); and John Childers, Minority Counsel, Senate Government Operations Committee, regarding S. Res. 400. Kenney offered to ask Senator Thurmond to introduce amendments on our behalf. Senator James Allen (D., Ala.) introduced a minor amendment which Childers had agreed to have introduced. Childers also indicated he would work that evening on the colloquies to clear up other points of concern in the Resolution.

7. [] LIAISON Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, called saying that Representative Samuel Stratton's (D., N. Y.) office would like an unclassified paper on the Lockheed bribes in Japan for a constituent's use. Also, Hogan said that he had received a call from the House Parliamentarian saying he was concerned about the discrepancy of the current figure in the CIARDS bill and that he would like to submit the bill to the House Appropriations Committee for 12 days and see what comments they have on it.

8. [] LIAISON Talked to Antonin Scalia, Justice Department, concerning S. Res. 400 and wanted to know if he would have any objection to our referring to his testimony before the Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations, Senate Government Operations Committee, on 23 October 1975. Scalia said he did not feel that it would be of any use in connection with S. Res. 400.
